WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.

THE NEW YORK COMBINATION AGAINST SECRETARY MCCULLOCH AND COMMISSIONER ROLLINS.

There is to be a determined fight on the question of retrenchment, especially in relation to the Internal Revenue Department. It is said that Colonel Wilson, one of the persons appointed by Secretary McCulloch, and Colonel Sheldon Bailey, Colonel Wardwell, the defaulting assistant treasurer of Cincinnati, and other persons of the same class, are to be retained in office, in spite of the Secretary's efforts to remove them. The whole gang that conspired to prevent Mr. McCulloch's appointment by the Senate, and who, by the way, are the Democratic chiefs of New York city, are said to be determined here to defeat the Secretary. Colonel Wilson, one of the persons against whom he has recommended charges to be made, is the Democratic chief of New York city, and made his appearance here with a city delegation on the 4th inst. Colonel Wilson, Sunday. The Chiefs afterward dined with the Secretary. Before he left, Colonel Wilson informed the Secretary that he was going to the very extremist with the whiskey men here, and will seriously interfere with the Democratic programme in the coming State election if Secretary McCulloch persists in the course he has taken. Secretary Rollins is warned that the whiskey men threaten revolt unless the Revenue Board is broken up. The reason why these men have been so long in power is because they have been willing to do anything possible, and it is currently reported that he advised the immediate issue of the recent circular to collectors, which was so offensive to the whiskey men. The people looked for the removal of Colonel Hay, of the Republican State Committee, and Colonel Hay, of the Democratic State Committee, in the city only two days ago. The arrangement is understood to be one of the conditions of the removals still now take place.

MR. FREDERICK BEHM'S RECOGNITION.

The Political Register has been appointed to the succession of Mr. Edward Bruce, and doubtless many of Mr. Thornton had been selected, as the Democratic Cabinet could no appointment will be made at present.

OPINION ON THE STATE RECORDS.

The Attorney-General has given an opinion in reference had on Saturday by a Conservative Republican, whose only Democratic friend was Mr. Johnson, that the Democratic Senate and House of Representatives of Maryland should have possession of the records of the State
